

Prikkels

The graph shows a function  $f(x)$  plotted against  $x$ . The function starts at a low value, rises to a peak, dips to a local minimum, and then rises to a constant high value.

